D. Financial Notes

1. Uses of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ materially from the estimates.

2. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets state a cost of the espresso stands purchased by the Company. The Company periodically evaluates whether events and circumstances have occurred that may warrant revision of the estimated useful life of the fixed assets or whether the remaining balance of fixed assets should be evaluated for possible impairment.

3. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is generated through the sale of custom-blended espresso drinks, freshly brewed coffee, or other beverages, fresh-bakes pastries and other confections, and Baristas merchandise,

4. Income Taxes

The Company Accounts for income taxes under the provisions of SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." SFAS No. 109 requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and operating loss and tax credit carry forwards using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences and carry forwards are expected to reverse.

In July 2006, the FASB issued FIN No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109." This interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109. The interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurements attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken in a tax return. It also provides guidance on recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. FIN No. 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The adoption of this interpretation did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations of financial position. As such, the Company has not recorded any liabilities for uncertain tax positions or any related interest penalties. The acceptability of the tax positions of the Company by the taxing authorities for the tax years open to Internal Revenue Service audit, the fiscal years 2005 through 2010, has not been determined.

The initial closing occurred on December 22, 2009, when an agreement was reached for Baristas to purchase in excess of 60% of the issued and outstanding share of Pangea. Under terms of the transaction, shareholders in Pangea would receive shares in Baristas. At that time, Subject to concurrence and approval of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), Baristas began to focus its operating activities in Pangea, operating as Baristas Coffee Company. See Subsequent Events below.
- E. The year-end of the Company is December 31.
- F. Baristas offers its patrons the finest hot and cold beverages, specializing in specialty coffees, blended teas, and other custom drinks. In addition, Baristas offers smoothies, fresh-baked pastries and other confections. Seasonally, Baristas adds beverages such as hot apple cider, hot chocolate, frozen coffees, and more. Another revenue stream is in the promoting and selling Baristas merchandise; promotional items, alluring calendars, mugs, t-shirts and hats that are sold. Historically, all stands have been company owned. However, the Company has begun franchising.

7) Facilities

Designed for efficiency, Baristas Coffee Company, Inc used a versatile 300 square foot pre-fabricated double-sided drive-thru system that is revolutionary to the beverage and food service industry. The flexibility afforded by the prefab building design, BCCI can open units on existing small pad sites that some landlords thought previously unusable.
