The goal of this disclosure is to provide information with respect to a company's Court Appointed Custodian.[3] Please address each of the below items to the best of the company's ability and to the extent they are applicable to the company's custodianship proceedings.

Disclosure of Court Appointed Custodian and Other Material Events:

1. Date of court order, name of court, case number, and name of custodian (if a corporate entity, include name of controlling individual).

   On August 21, 2020, Star Wax America, LLC, owned by Answar Wills, was granted a custodianship order (Case No: A-20-818013-P) in the District Court of Clark County of the State of Nevada.

2. Number of securities held by custodian, voting power of the securities, and description as to how the securities were acquired (e.g., open market purchases, compensation, loan settlement).

   The Custodian purchased 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock on the open market. On August 21, 2020, the Custodian designated and granted to itself, 1 share of Special 2020 Series A Preferred Stock at par value of $0.001. The Special 2020 Series A Preferred Stock has 60% voting rights over all classes of stock and is convertible into 750,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

3. A description of officer/director appointments, resignations or terminations made in connection with the custodianship proceedings, including names and relevant titles.

   On August 21, 2020, the Custodian appointed Answar Wills as the Company's sole officer and director. On August 31, 2020, Carey W. Cooley was appointed to be the Company's director, CEO, Treasurer and Secretary. On August 31, 2020, Answar Wills resigned as an officer and director of the Company.

4. A description of any opposition by former management or shareholders (if there was no opposition, this should be stated).

   None.
