(B) Business of Issuer.

The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada on May 13, 2005 to engage in the acquisition, exploration, and development of natural resource properties.

On February 9, 2006, the Company purchased the Gold Bug Project from John Xinos. The property, which was without known exploitable reserves, consisted of six mineral cell claims having a total surface area of approximately 315 acres in Beaverdell, British Columbia, Canada.

The Company engaged Madman on September 21, 2006 to complete initial exploration work on the property. On April 12, 2007, the Company received the results from the first phase of the exploration; Madman was unable to identify economically viable deposits of precious metals. Shortly thereafter, management decided to discontinue mining activities on the property. Ownership of the claim was transferred to Lloyd Christopher Brewer on January 28th, 2007 in exchange for forgiveness of exploration expenses due by the Company.

On September 7, 2007, the Company entered into a purchase agreement with CypherEdge Technologies, Inc. ("CypherEdge"), and its stockholders. CypherEdge is in the business of providing solutions to wireless service providers in an effort to improve customer experience, quality of service, network reliability, and profitability. The Company was to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of CypherEdge in exchange for an aggregate of 83,000,000 shares of our common stock on or before December 31, 2007. Further, the Company agreed to loan CypherEdge $1,000,000 in advance of the closing of which we loaned $975,000, at 10% per annum, due in full by December 31, 2007. However, due to a failure to satisfy certain conditions of the agreement the closing date was not met and the prospective transaction was abandoned. The loan to CypherEdge is currently in default and the Company has provided notice of its intention to collect the outstanding debt.

On January 30, 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with Trustcash Holdings, Inc. ("Trustcash") and Paivis, Corp. ("Paivis") whereby the Company agreed to finance, on a best efforts basis, a minimum of $2,000,000 but no more than $7,000,000 of the financing required by Trustcash under a Definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger between Trustcash and Paivis dated December 20, 2007, as amended February 5, 2008. The Company further agreed to provide interim financing to both Paivis and Trustcash of at least $150,000 to cover costs associated with the prospective merger and general working capital of which $25,000 had been provided as of March 31, 2008.

The Paivis and Trustcash transactions did not consummate and as such the company has been providing medical billing services from that point to December 2009. The Company acted as an outsourcing agent and process billing for the medical sector. The company provided these services since April of 2008 to December 2009.

Item 16: Management's discussion and analysis

Management's discussion and analysis of MISTRAL's financial condition and the results of its operations and other sections of this report contain forward looking statements that are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of management, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. Because these statements involve risks and uncertainties, actual actions and strategies and the timing and expected results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. As well, MISTRAL's future results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, any forward-looking statements due to a number of uncertainties including, but not limited to, those discussed in this section. Factors that could cause MISTRAL's future results to differ from these expectations include general economic conditions, particularly as they affect MISTRAL's business operations and its ability to raise sufficient working capital. As a result, the identification and interpretation of data and other information and their use in developing and selecting assumptions from and among reasonable alternatives requires the exercise of judgment. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, MISTRAL's outcome may vary substantially from its anticipated or projected results, and accordingly, MISTRAL expresses no opinion on the achievability of those forward-looking statements and gives no assurance that any of the assumptions relating to the forward-looking statements are accurate.

All forward-looking statements are made as of the date of filing of this Form 10-KSBI nformation Disclosure statement and MISTRAL disclaims any duty to update these statements.

MISTRAL may, from time to time, make oral forward-looking statements. MISTRAL strongly advises you to read the foregoing paragraphs and the risk factors described in this annual report and in MISTRAL's other documents filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission for a description of certain factors that could cause MISTRAL's actual results to differ materially from those in the oral forward-looking statements. MISTRAL disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any oral or written forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Overview

The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada on May 13, 2005 to engage in the acquisition, exploration, and development of natural resource properties.

On February 9, 2006, we purchased the Gold Bug Project from John Xinos. The property, which was without known exploitable reserves, consisted of six mineral cell claims having a total surface area of approximately 315 acres in Beaverdell, British Columbia, Canada. We engaged Madman on September 21, 2006 to complete initial exploration work on the property. On April 12, 2007, the Company received the results from the first phase of the exploration; Madman was unable to identify economically viable deposits of precious metals. Shortly thereafter, management decided to discontinue mining activities on the property. Ownership of the claim was transferred to Lloyd Christopher Brewer on January 28th, 2007 in exchange for forgiveness of exploration expenses due by the Company.

On September 7, 2007, we entered into a purchase agreement with CypherEdge Technologies, Inc. ("CypherEdge"), and its stockholders. CypherEdge is in the business of providing solutions to wireless service providers in an effort to improve customer experience, quality of service, network reliability, and profitability. The Company was to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of CypherEdge in exchange for an aggregate of 83,000,000 shares of our common stock on or before December 31, 2007. Further, the Company agreed to loan CypherEdge $1,000,000 in advance of the closing of which we loaned $975,000, at 10% per annum, due in full by December 31, 2007. However, due to a failure to satisfy certain conditions of the agreement the closing date was not met and the prospective transaction was abandoned. The loan to CypherEdge is currently in default and the Company has provided notice of its intention to collect the outstanding debt.

On January 30, 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with Trustcash Holdings, Inc. ("Trustcash") and Paivis, Corp. ("Paivis") whereby the Company agreed to finance, on a best efforts basis, a minimum of $2,000,000 but no more than $7,000,000 of the financing required by Trustcash under a Definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger between Trustcash and Paivis dated December 20, 2007, as amended February 5, 2008. The Company further agreed to provide interim financing to both Paivis and Trustcash of at least $150,000 to cover costs associated with the prospective merger and general working capital of which $25,000 had been provided as of March 31, 2008.

At 31 March 2008, the purchase agreement had not closed and CypherEdge was in default on repayment of the $975,000 related to the bridge loan agreement. CypherEdge was presented with a demand letter related to this loan receivable on 25 January 2008

Currently, Mistral Ventures, Inc. engages in the development of mobile phone applications ("apps") for mobile marketplaces such as the Apple App Store as well as similar marketplaces for mobile phone operating systems such as Android, Symbian, and BlackBerry. The Company develops iPhone and iPod Touch apps for client customers and is building code that can be repurposed for future clients, thus driving the cost to the client customer down and allowing more business to take advantage of having their own mobile phone application(s) available to the general public. The Company also develops software for personal computers including Windows and Mac operating systems.

Financial Condition

MISTRAL is a development stage company and MISTRAL's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on raising additional capital to fund future operations and ultimately to attain profitable operations. This means that MISTRAL's auditors believe there is substantial doubt that MISTRAL can continue as an on-going business for the next twelve months unless MISTRAL obtains additional capital to pay its bills. MISTRAL's auditors' report on its 2008 financial statements contained an explanatory paragraph that states that due to recurring losses since inception and negative cash flows substantial doubt exists as to MISTRAL's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, MISTRAL's financial statements contained in this annual report have been prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that MISTRAL will be able to realize its assets and discharge its obligations in the normal course of business. MISTRAL incurred net losses for the period from inception of May 13, 2005 to March 31, 2010 of $1,094,232.

MISTRAL had net loss of $21,000 during the year ended December 31, 2009. As of December 31, 2009, MISTRAL had a cash balance of $1,024, current assets of discontinued operations of $261, accounts receivable of $374,649, prepaid expenses of $0, and inventory of $0. When these current assets were offset against MISTRAL's current liabilities of $351,233, in accounts payable of $20,916, in accrued liabilities of $0, in amounts due to related parties of $2,500 in a note payable of $250,000, MISTRAL was left with a working capital deficit of $1,094,232 at December 31, 2009.

MISTRAL's financial statements have been prepared without any adjustments that would be necessary if MISTRAL becomes unable to continue as a going concern and would therefore be required to realize upon its assets and discharge its liabilities in other than the normal course of its business operations.

Item 17: Issuance History

The company did not issue any securities for services from its last 10Q filed on March 31, 2008 through March 31, 2010. The company has never issued stock for services.

Item 18: Material Contracts

The company has no material contracts which pertain to its business or securities issuances as identified in A B and C.

Item 19: Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

As Attached as an exhibit

Item 20: Purchases of equity securities by the issuer and Affiliated purchasers.

The company has not entered into any purchases of securities or has knowledge of any affiliated party purchase.
