BUSINESS INFORMATION

ITEM 8 THE NATURE OF THE ISSUER'S BUSINESS:

A. BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Company Overview: PacWest Equities Inc Specializes in working with underperforming companies and bringing together the resources needed for them to attain financial stability and growth. Our focus is on companies showing a positive upside while struggling to bring new technologies and unique products to market

B. BUSINESS OF ISSUER

The Opportunity:

Recent studies, by Global Industry Analysts, Inc., indicate that the Global Household Green Cleaning Products are fast becoming the most powerful “technological growth market” and that this industry revenues should easily exceed US$9.32B by 2017. Certainly, as with any new emerging market, there are branding, image and perception challenges that must be taken into consideration for a successful new product launch.

The Response:

PacWest has developed unique product marketing, branding and pricing strategies designed to take full advantage of this new and developing revenue opportunity. By addressing “image” issues, primarily utilizing social media / e-commerce marketing, we will create new market driven consumer awareness, broaden product applications / uses, and combine our product offering with a value pricing awareness program; we will actually expand the market and contribute to its continued growth with a viral and self-propagating culture.

PacWest Equities’ Associates are an experienced team of accomplished and proven professionals. We provide results-driven solutions by leveraging investor relations, facilitating creative product development and fostering interactive services / partnerships. Our proven market strategies and proven operational dynamics specialize on new and emerging technologies and product development; this combined with our executive team’s intrinsic ability to identify business opportunities and growth, is indeed the cornerstone of our success.

All our associates work diligently to provide and increase immediate revenue streams with current opportunities while we continue to expand on our base of technologies promoting innovation and appropriate R & D; including such technologies as Environmental Remediation, Oil Enhancement and Clean Up, GreyWater, Green Transportation and Communications.

For obvious reasons, we particularly favor and focus on the expanding “green market” products as a key component of our PacWest strategy. Our most recent example of this program is the acquisition of Green Rhino, Inc. and our partnering their products with other industry leaders and marketing /distribution programs.

Specifically, we have found Green Rhino™ provides an excellent product line of powerful biodegradable all-purpose, non-toxic cleaners that can be coupled with a heavy duty equipment parts and military weapons washing systems using our proprietary bio-remediation process. Green Rhino™ will be launching mid-2012 to key markets nationally and simultaneously exposing these products to the international markets.

Pac West Equities is also initiating Joint Ventures with e-Green Marketing and Symbiotech.

- e-Green Marketing specializes in bringing clean technology and eco-friendly products to market with the understanding that while the social and ecological benefits of going green are important so is the need to be profitable.
- Symbiotech is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned business formed to identify gaps in technology, primarily in government agencies, and match existing or emerging technologies to fill those gaps.

Industry Overview/Market Conditions

Product

Green Rhino APC solution is also non-hazardous, making it exempt from EPA and OSHA personal protection and handling requirements for hazardous material.

COMPETITION

- The competition comes from larger companies such as Clorox (Green Works), SC Johnson and Sons and of course Simple Green. Other smaller companies include Ecolab, Seventh Generation and Method Products. The larger companies have actually taken green cleaning from a niche to more mainstream markets but still fighting price and public awareness issues. The economy over the past few years has people looking at price, but family health and the environment still remain a concern. The smaller (and more expensive) brands have held up well during this time as they cater to the more affluent and environmentally minded.

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

- PRIMARY CONSUMER MARKET: All of the competitors have multiple cleaning products and overlap as how and where to use. We will focus on the multipurpose cleaner concept and make it less confusing for consumer. Also, instead of initially going head to head in pricing with conventional bottling and side by side shelf comparison we will package Green Rhino in a more convenient "on the go " size with a much smaller price tag. We will market smaller packaging for broader product applications, (keep it in car, boat, desk, golf bag etc.), which conventional cleaners are not addressing. Our strategy is to focus on branding Green Rhino in such a manner as to make it synonymous with "everyday clean" while we expand the uses / applications and our product line. There exist many consumer micro markets, while not as competitive as the household cleaning market, there are several competitors including Safety Kleen and Bio Circle. After our initial launch we will follow-up with a focus on these specific consumer micro markets and initially work with companies that are already providing service that utilize cleaning products and may will benefit from the "consumer" version of our "PWS", power washing system.
- SECONDARY B to B and MILITARY MARKETS: Through our partnership with Symbiotech we will introduce Green Rhino to the trillion dollar military market. The strategy is to facilitate a constant and secure revenue stream from both sales/leasing of cleaning equipment and our ongoing service and training; as is often required with the constant change of personal at military bases. Our point of advantage over the competition with this market, in addition to our partnership with Symbiotech, is our patented and propriety "Green Rhino Parts Washing and Weapons Cleaning Systems (PWS)". Specifically, we use a bio-remediation process involving a heavy duty, solvent free, aqueous (water) -based agent that quickly and efficiently emulsifies, degreases and disperses hydrocarbon/firing residue deposits. Biologically safe microorganisms then metabolize the burnt carbon/nitrate residue, grease and oil in harmless enzymes, carbon dioxide and water. This product service can also be expanded to "business to business" commercial institutional cleaning / laundry services, truck, construction equipment and car washes, Etc.

Management Philosophy:

- Our business sense is to keep operating cost extremely low by leveraging partners and outsourcing as many logistics and product fulfilling requirements as possible. Initially management can work within a virtual office environment and for product handling we have identified warehousing space that can be used for any inventory that is not shipped directly “drop shipped” to our customers or distributors. Our primary key goals for the first 30 days include identifying product demand projections, production and bottling requirements, costs / expenses for distribution and our long term revenue stream and projections

Our initial management team consists of Gary Koelsch with more than 20 years in product procurement / marketing / and business partnership development; and Cindee Colombo with more than 20 years of corporate marketing and branding experience.

Risk factors

The Company has a limited operating history GREEN RHINO was incorporated in the State of Nevada and has limited or no operating history. As such historical operating results may not provide a meaningful basis for evaluating the business, financial performance and prospects. You should consider the Company’s business, operations and prospects in light of the risks, expenses and challenges faced as an early-stage company.

The Company has no history of significant profit and no assured foreseeable earnings.

The Company has no history of significant profit. The Company expects to continue to incur losses in the very near future, and there can be no assurance that it will ever be profitable as it expects operating expenses to increase as its client base and distribution channels are expanded. The Company’s ability to reach and sustain profitability depends on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the ability to generate sales, increase distribution channels and obtain financing.

The Company’s business depends substantially on the continuing efforts of its executive officers and its business may be severely disrupted if the Company loses their services. In addition, if the Company is unable to attract, train and retain technical personnel, business may be materially and adversely affected.

The Company’s future success depends substantially on the continued services of its executive officers. If one or more executive officers are unable or unwilling to continue being employed by us, the Company may not be able to replace them readily, if at all. Therefore, the Company’s business may be severely disrupted, and it may incur additional expenses to recruit and retain new officers.

2.10 Record Date for Shareholder Notice, Voting and Giving Consents.

(a) For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting, to vote, or to give consent to corporate action without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date of any such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to such action without a meeting, and in such case, only shareholders of record at the close of business on the date so fixed are entitled to notice and to vote or to give consents, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the Corporation after the record date fixed at aforesaid, except as otherwise provided in a Nevada General Corporation Law.

(b) If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date:

(i) the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and

(ii) the record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, (A) when no prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given, or (B) when prior action of the Board has been taken, shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth (60th) day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.

2.11 Proxies. Every person entitled to vote for Directors or on any other matter shall have the right to do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy signed by such person and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the shareholder's name is placed on the proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic transmission or otherwise) by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact. A validly executed proxy which does not state that it is irrevocable shall continue in full force and effect unless (i) revoked by the person executing it, prior to the vote pursuant thereto, by a writing delivered to the Corporation stating that the proxy is revoked, or by a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy and presented to the meeting, or by such person's attendance at the meeting and voting in person; or (ii) written notice of the death or incapacity of the maker of such proxy is received by the Corporation before the vote pursuant thereto is counted; provided, however, that no such proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of such proxy, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

2.12 Inspectors of Election.

(a) Before any meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint any persons other than nominees for office to act as inspectors of election at the meeting or its adjournment. If no inspectors of election are so appointed, the chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either one (1) or three (3). If inspectors are appointed at the meeting on the request of one or more shareholders or proxies, the holders of a majority of shares or their proxies present at the meeting, shall determine whether one (1) or three (3) inspectors are to be appointed. If any person appointed as inspector fails to appear or fails or refuses to act, the chairman of the meeting may and upon the request of any shareholder or shareholder's proxy shall, appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

(b) The inspectors shall:

(i) determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies;

(ii) receive votes, ballots or consents;

(iii) hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote;

(iv) count and tabulate all votes or consents;

(v) determine when the polls shall close;

(vi) determine the result; and

(vii) do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders.

2.13 Conduct of Shareholders' Meetings.

(a) The Chairman of the Board shall preside at the meetings of the shareholders. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer shall preside at the meetings of the shareholders. In the absence of both the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, the President shall preside at the meetings of the shareholders. In the anticipated absence of all officers designated to preside at the meetings of shareholders, the board of directors may designate an individual to preside at a meeting of shareholders. If the individual or individuals designated to preside are not present or do not assert the right to preside, the shareholders may elect a chairman of the meeting.

(b) The Board of Directors of the Corporation may, to the extent not prohibited by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, adopt such additional or supplemental rules and regulations for the conduct of the meetings of shareholders, as it shall deem appropriate. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as are adopted by the Board of Directors, the chairman of any meeting of shareholders shall have the right and authority, prior to, at the inception of, or during the meeting, to prescribe such additional supplemental rules, regulations, and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such chairman of the meeting, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations, or procedures, whether adopted by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the chairman of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to shareholders of record of the Corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies, or such other persons as the chairman of the meeting shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. Unless and to the extent determined by the Board of Directors or the chairman of the meeting, meetings of shareholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.

2.14 Notice of Business and Nominations.

(a) To be properly brought before any shareholders' meeting, business and nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation must be (i) specified in the notice of meeting given by or at the direction of the Chairman of the Board or the President or the Board of Directors, (ii) otherwise properly brought before such meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (iii) otherwise properly brought before such meeting by a shareholder or shareholders who was a shareholder or were shareholders, respectively, of record at the time that notice of such meeting was given, who is or are entitled to vote for the election of Directors at such meeting and who complies or comply with the notice procedures set forth in this By-Law.

(b) For business to be properly brought before any shareholders' meeting by a shareholder or shareholders the shareholder or shareholders must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and such business must otherwise be a proper matter for shareholder action. To be timely, a shareholder's or shareholders' notice shall be delivered to or received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than eighty days nor earlier than ninety days prior to (a) in the case of a special meeting called by such shareholder or shareholders, the date the shareholder has, or the shareholders have, as applicable, selected for such special meeting, and (b) in the case of an annual meeting, the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty days before or more than sixty days after such anniversary date, notice by such shareholder or shareholders to be timely must be so received by the Secretary of the Corporation (i) not later than the close of business on the later of the eightieth day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made by the Corporation and (ii) not earlier than the ninetieth day prior to such annual meeting. In the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors at least ninety days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a shareholder's or shareholders' notice required by this By-Law shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such shareholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be), for election to such position or positions as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the shareholder's notice required by this By-Law shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation (i) not later than the close of business on the later of the eightieth day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting and (ii) not earlier than the close of business on the ninetieth day prior to such special meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of a meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above.

(c) A shareholder's notice to the Secretary of the Corporation shall set forth as to each matter that the shareholder proposes to bring before such meeting (i) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and Rule 14a-11 thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (ii) as to any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before such meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at such meeting of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; (iii) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf such nomination or proposal of business is made (A) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, (B) the class and number of shares of the securities of the corporation that are beneficially owned by such shareholder and such beneficial owner; and (iv) any material interest of such shareholder and such beneficial owner in such nomination and such business.

(d) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-Law shall be eligible to serve as directors, and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of shareholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-Law. Except as otherwise provided by law, the chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that the nomination or business that the shareholder proposes to bring before such meeting was not properly brought before such meeting in accordance with the foregoing procedure, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting, and the defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

3.01 Powers.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Nevada Code, any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation, and these By-Laws relating to action required to be approved by the shareholders or by the outstanding shares, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

(b) Without prejudice to such general powers but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the power and authority to:

(i) select and remove all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as are not inconsistent with law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service;

(ii) change the principal executive office or the principal business office of the Corporation from one location to another; cause the Corporation to be qualified to conduct or do business in any state, territory, dependency, or foreign country; designate any place within or without the State for the holding of any shareholders' meeting or meetings, including annual meetings; adopt, make or use a corporate seal, prescribe the forms of certificates of stock, and alter the form of such seal and of such certificates;

(iii) authorize the issuance of options and warrants to purchase shares of stock of the Corporation, from time to time, upon such terms as may be lawful, in consideration of money paid, labor done, services actually rendered, debts or securities cancelled, or tangible or intangible property actually received; and

(iv) borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the Corporation, and cause to be executed and delivered therefore, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidences of debt and securities therefore.

3.02 Number and Qualifications of Directors. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be designated from time to time by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

3.03 Vacancies.

(a) Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director, except that a vacancy created by the removal of a

Director by the vote or written consent of the shareholders or by court order may be filled only by the vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum), or by the unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of Directors. Each Director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

(b) A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in the case of the death, resignation or removal of any Director, or if the Board of Directors, by resolution, declares vacant the office of Director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of Court or convicted of a felony, or if the authorized number of Directors is increased, or if the shareholders fail, at any meeting of shareholders at which any Director or Directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at the meeting.

(c) The shareholders may elect a Director or Directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the Directors, but any such election by written consent, other than to fill a vacancy created by removal, shall require the consent of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

(d) Any Director may resign upon giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors. A resignation shall be effective upon the giving of the notice, unless the notice specifies a later time for its effectiveness. If the resignation of a Director is effective at a future time, the Board of Directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

(e) No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of his term of office.

3.04 Place of Meeting and Telephonic Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at any time and at any place within or outside the State of Nevada that may be designated by these By-Laws, or from time to time by resolution of the Board. In the absence of the designation of a place, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the Corporation. Special meetings of the Board shall be held at any place that has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice, at the principal executive office of the Corporation. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all Directors participating in such meeting can hear one another, and all such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

3.05 Annual Meetings. Immediately following each annual meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting for purposes of organization, any desired election of officers, and the transaction of other business. Notice of such meeting shall not be required.

3.06 Other Regular Meetings. Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held not less than quarterly as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors. Such regular meetings may be held without notice but provided notice and an agenda shall be furnished to all Directors when time permits.

3.07 Special Meetings.

(a) Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary or any two (2) Directors.

(b) Notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally or by telephone to each Director or sent by first class mail or telegram, charges prepaid, addressed to each Director at his or her address as it is shown upon the records of the Corporation. In case such notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail at least four (4) days prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered personally, or by telephone or telegram, it shall be delivered personally or by telephone or to the telegraph company at least forty eight (48) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated to either the Director or to a person at the office of the Director who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the Director. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting nor the place if the meeting is to be held at the principal executive office of the Corporation.

3.08 Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as hereinafter provided. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

3.09 Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice thereof. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such Director.

3.10 Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

3.11 Notice of Adjournment. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given, unless the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty four (24) hours, in which case notice of such time and place shall be given, prior to the time of the adjourned meeting, to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

3.12 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

3.13 Fees and Compensation of Directors. Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursements of expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee, or otherwise and receiving compensation for such services.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

4.01 Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board or a President, or both, a Secretary, and a Chief Financial Officer. The Corporation may also have, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, one or more Assistant Secretaries, one or more Assistant Treasurers, and such other officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4.03 of this Article IV. Any number of officers may be held by the same person.

4.02 Election of Officers. The officers of the Corporation, except such officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4.03 or paragraph 4.05 of this Article V, shall be chosen by the Board of Directors, and each shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment.

4.03 Subordinate Officers, Etc. The Board of Directors may appoint, and may empower the President to appoint, such other officers as the business of the Corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in the By-Laws or as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

4.04 Removal and Resignation of Officers.

(a) Subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors, at any regular or special meeting thereof, or, except in the case of an officer chosen by the Board of Directors, by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

(b) Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect upon the giving of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any such resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party.

4.04 Vacancies in Offices. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these By-Laws for regular appointments to such office.

4.05 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board, if such an officer be elected, shall, if present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be, from time to time, assigned to him by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the By-Laws, including, without limitation, the designation of Chief Executive Officer ("CEO").

4.06 President. Subject to such supervisory powers, if any, as may be given by the Board of Directors to the Chairman of the Board, if there be such an officer, the President shall be the general manager and, if so designated by the Board of Directors, may be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and the officers of the Corporation. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board, or if there be none, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of President of a corporation and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the By-Laws.

4.07 Vice Presidents. In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice Presidents, if any, in order of their rank as fixed by the Board of Directors, or, if not ranked, a Vice President designated by the Board of Directors, shall perform all the duties of the President, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to, all the restrictions upon the President. The Vice Presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed for them respectively by the Board of Directors, the By-Laws, or the President, or Chairman of the Board if there is no President.

4.08 Secretary.

(a) The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept at the principal executive office, or such other place as the Board of Directors may designate, a book of minutes of all meetings and actions of Directors, committees of Directors, and shareholders, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at Directors' and committee meetings, the number of shares present or represented at shareholder's meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

(b) The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept at the principal executive office, or at the office of the Corporation's transfer agent or registrar, as determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, a share register or a duplicate share register showing the names of all shareholders and their addresses, the number and classes of shares held by each, the number and date of certificates issued for the same, and the number and date of cancellation of every certificate surrendered for cancellation.

(c) The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors required by the By-Laws or by law to be given, and shall keep the seal of the Corporation, if one be adopted, in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or by the By-Laws.

4.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of accounts of the properties and business transactions of the Corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, retained earnings and shares. The book of accounts shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection by any Director.

ARTICLE V INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER AGENTS

5.01 Agents, Proceedings and Expenses. For the purposes of this Article, "agent" means any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee, or other agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a Director, officer, employee, or other agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a Director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of this Corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative; and "expenses" includes, without limitation, attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under paragraph 5.04 or paragraph 5.05(c) of this Article V.

5.02 Actions Other Than by the Corporation. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of this

Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding, if that person acted in good faith and in a manner that person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of this Corporation, and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of that person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of this Corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

5.03 Actions by the Corporation. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that that person is or was an agent of this Corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense or settlement of that action if that person acted in good faith, in a manner that person believed to be in the best interests of this Corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnification shall be made under this paragraph 5.03:

(a) in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which that person shall have been adjudged to be liable to this Corporation in the performance of that person's duty to this Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which that proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, that person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court shall determine;

(b) of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or (c) of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval.

5.04 Successful Defense by Agent. To the extent that an agent of this Corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in paragraph 5.02 or 5.03 of this Article V, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

5.05 Required Approval. Except as provided in paragraph 5.04 of this Article, any indemnification under this Article shall be made by this Corporation only if authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraph 5.02 or 5.03 of this Article V, by:

(a) a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who are not parties to the proceeding;

(b) approval by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of this Corporation represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum), or by the written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote (for this purpose, the shares owned by the person to be indemnified shall not be entitled to vote thereon); or

(c) the court in which the proceeding is or was pending, upon application made by this Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by this Corporation.

5.06 Advance of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by this Corporation before the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay the amount of the advance unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article V.

5.07 Other Contractual Rights. Nothing contained in this Article V shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than Directors and officers of this Corporation or any subsidiary hereof may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

5.08 Limitations. No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article V, except as provided in paragraph 5.04 or paragraph 5.05(c), in any circumstance where it appears:

(a) that it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles, these By-Laws, a resolution of the shareholders, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) that it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

5.09 Insurance. This Corporation may, upon a determination by the Board of Directors, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability which might be asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity, or which might arise out of the agent's status as such, whether or not this Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against that liability under the provisions of this Article V.

5.10 Fiduciaries of Corporate Employee Benefit Plan. This Article V does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in that person's capacity as such even though that person may also be an agent of this Corporation as defined in paragraph 5.01 of this Article V. This Corporation may, however, upon approval in accordance with paragraph 5.05, indemnify and purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any fiduciary to the extent permitted by the laws of the State of Nevada.

5.11 Amendment to Nevada Law. In the event that Nevada law regarding indemnification of Directors, officers, employees and other agents of corporations, as in effect at the time of adoption of these By-Laws, is subsequently amended in any way increase the scope of permissible indemnification beyond that set forth herein, the indemnification authorized by this Article V shall be deemed to be coextensive with that afforded by the Nevada law as so amended.

ARTICLE VI GENERAL CORPORATE MATTERS

6.01 Record Date for Purposes Other Than Notice and Voting.

(a) For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action (other than for the purposes prescribed by paragraph 2.10 of Article II of these By-Laws), the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days prior to any such action, and in such case only shareholders of record at the close of business on the date so fixed are entitled to receive the dividend, distribution or allotment of rights or to exercise the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the Corporation after the record date fixed as aforesaid, except as otherwise provided in Nevada General Corporation Law.

(b) If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date, the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth (60th) day prior to the date of such action, whichever is later.

6.02 Checks, Drafts, Evidences of Indebtedness. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of or payable to the Corporation, shall be signed or endorsed by such person or persons and in such manner as, from time to time, shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. Such signature(s) or endorsement(s) may be by facsimile or printed signature of the officer.

6.03 Corporate Contracts and Instruments; How Executed.
