Item 3 – Interim Financial Statements:

Balance Sheets, Statements of Operations, Statements of Stockholders' Equity, and Statements of Cash Flows for the period ending June 30, 2012

Item 4 – Management's discussion and analysis or plan of operation:

The company's business is the reclamation and sale of recovered hydrocarbon products from a variety of sources and consulting with other companies on technology and techniques to market their mixed product streams. the Company's limited capital is a large factor in keeps it from further development.

Currently, there are no known trends or events that have or are likely to have a material impact on the Company's short term or long-term liquidity. However, the company has limited operating capital, which severely limits the company's ability to finance its purchases. The Company has meager cash reserves and access to a limited line of credit that may not provide the Company with the necessary funds to address its liquidity requirements.

The company has no significant elements of income or loss that do not arise from its continuing operations nor does it have any current material commitments for capital expenditures. The significant fluctuations in the price of oil will have a material impact on the company's business; consequently, from time to time, the company's financial statements may be materially different.
